“Eighteen Springs...Love it for its brilliance”
— The Straits Times (Singapore)

“...their success was based on meticulous preparation and creative talent.”
— Professor Jonathan D. Spence, Sterling Professor of History Emeritus, Department of History, Yale University

“(Architecture is Art Festival) is a unique undertaking – possibly the first of its kind in the world.”
— *The Wall Street Journal Asia

“Mathias (is) ... one of the city’s most popular and respected creative minds...”
— The Editorial, *South China Morning Post

The season begins with the rerun of Eighteen Springs, a show featuring the storytelling form of Tanci about the prime time of our life which we have now passed and can no longer return to.

This year marks the 10th Anniversary of the East Wing West Wing series, and the comedy will move back to its original small theatre space of 10 years ago and continue to give constructive commentary on Hong Kong’s politics.

The Zen comedy The Kimchi Dream, an affectionate parody of The Diamond Sutra centered upon the theme of eating – its emptiness nature against eating and non-eating.

Taking "Religion and Architecture" as its main theme, the 3rd "Architecture is Art Festival" will explore the different potentials of physical and spiritual space. Programmes include Oculus by Cloud Gate 2 as the opening performance; The Trial: Experimental Theatre, an experimental theatre on Chinese traditional opera presented on a stage with mirrors on four sides; A Tale of the Forbidden City, the imaginary last visit of Emperor Chongzhen to the Forbidden City; and the Siddham alphabets and World of Hua-Yen as revived once again in the third rerun of Hua-Yen Sutra 3.0.

Advance Booking are accepted from 1 April! Discount Up to 23% Off!
